

Week one: Giving an introduction and definition of Phonetics and Phonology, and the differences between them.

Week two: Explaining chapter 8: the syllable, its nature, structure, and elements.

Week three: Explaining chapter 9 : Strong and weak syllables, weak vowels, and syllabic consonants.

Week four: Presenting chapter 10: Stress in simple words, its nature, levels, and the placement of stress on different types of words.

Week Five: Reviewing the chapters studied and testing students orally.

Week six: presenting chapter 11: Complex word stress, suffixes, and prefixes.

Week seven: presenting chapter 12: Weak forms.

Week Eight: Reviewing the chapters studied and opening the door to discussions.

Week nine: Chapter 14: Aspects of connected speech.

Week ten: Completing chapter 14: Linking.

Week eleven: Explaining chapter 15: Intonation.

Week twelve: Intonation: Forms and Functions.

Week thirteen: Doing a review on the material studied and opening the door to classroom discussions.

Week fourteen: Doing oral and written tests.