

Week one: Introduction and definition of methods of teaching, approaches, techniques, and strategies in addition to some terminologies regarding language teaching.

Week two: Presenting an introduction on Grammar translation method and its principles.

Week three: Presenting the techniques used in GTM and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles.

Week four: Presenting an introduction about the Direct Method and its principles.

Week Five: Presenting the techniques used in the Direct Method and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles.

Week six: Reviewing the two previously studied methods and their principles and techniques and giving the students a chance to discuss them.

Week seven: Presenting an introduction on the Audiolingual method and its principles.

Week Eight: Presenting the techniques used in the audiolingual and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles.

Week nine: Presenting an introduction on the Silent Way and its principles.

Week ten: Presenting the techniques used in the Silent Way and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles.

Week eleven: Reviewing the recently studied methods and giving the students a chance to be involved in discussions.

Week twelve: Presenting an introduction on the Desuggestopedia method and its principles in addition to its techniques and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles.

Week thirteen: Presenting an introduction on the Communicative method and its principles.

Week fourteen: Presenting the techniques used in the Communicative method and explaining the ten questions about the methods' principles. Making a written exam.