

Week one: Giving an Introduction and definition of grammar and its concepts. Giving a general explanation of morphemes.

Week two: Explaining chapter 8: morphemes, their subclassifications and Affixes.

Week three: Explaining suffixal homophones, noun feminine forms, noun diminutive forms, and Immediate constituents.

Week four: Explaining the definition of word and its types: simple, compound and complex.

Week Five: Presenting chapter 10: Processes of word formation.

Week six: Reviewing the chapters studied and testing students orally.

Week seven: Presenting an introduction on the inflectional paradigms.

Week Eight: Presenting Chapter 11: Parts of speech: Form-Classes. Defining nouns, verbs, adjectives, etc.

Week nine: Chapter 13: Structure classes: qualifiers, prepositions, and determiners.

Week ten: Reviewing the recently studied material and opening the door to discussions among students.

Week eleven: Explaining the different types of auxiliaries (modal, primary, and periphrastic) and their uses in English.

Week twelve: Presenting an introduction on Personal, Relative and Interrogative Pronouns and their uses in English.

Week thirteen: Doing a review on the material studied and opening the door to classroom discussions.

Week fourteen: Doing oral and written tests.