

Reading science	The definition of the science of reading, the seven letters and their relationship to readings, and general principles in the terminology used in the science of readings, the meaning of the seven letters language and terminology, the directions of scientists in the interpretation of the seven letters, the relationship of the seven letters writing the Koran, the relationship of seven readings in the seven letters, In the Prophetic Age, the phenomenon of selection and its impact on readings, readings in the era of codification, classification in readings, the impact of Ibn Mujahid in the development of the science of readings, readings in modern times. The tendency to some readings and novels, the rule of some readings in our time and its causes, the direction of some readings in the places, the correct reading and reading abnormal, the three correct reading points, the position of grammarians and linguists of the linguistic officer, reading abnormal and ruling, sections of readings according to the officer, provisions The readings, the frequency of readings, the rule of readings in terms of frequency and lack thereof, the seven readings and their provisions, the three readings, the ten sequels, the readings behind the ten, the rule of readings and the work of them, the usefulness of the different readings and its effects, the layers of readers of companions and followers, Their tenets and their banners, the seven readers and their banners
------------------------	--