

Curriculum and teaching methods	The Meaning of the Curriculum and its Importance The Narrow Concept of the Curriculum The principles contained in the modern concept of the educational curriculum The factors that led to the development of the concept of the curriculum The modern concept of the comparative curriculum between the old curriculum and the modern curriculum The characteristics of the Islamic curriculum The structure of the curriculum and its basic elements Curriculum teaching methods (concept) The importance of teaching methods Classification of teaching methods Instructional method Professional conditions in the teacher of Islamic education Personal competencies Methods of teaching interpretation (its concept - objectives) Steps of teaching the interpretation of the Teaching the doctrines of the Hadith (its concept - its objectives) Steps of teaching the doctrines Steps to teach the doctrines Methods of teaching Islamic jurisprudence (concept - its objectives) Steps to teach Islamic jurisprudence Planning in Teaching how to prepare the plan Types of study plans (annual) How to prepare a monthly plan
---	---