

Textbook: Orientation      Hours: 2      Units: 4      system :

1. Definition of orientation linguistically and terminologically
2. The beginning of orientation. a. The traditional stage.
3. b. Contemporary stage.
4. Orientation schools.
5. Aims and Motivations of Orientation. a. Religious motivation. b. Colonial Motivation
6. C. Economical motivation. d. Political motivation. e. scientific motivation.
7. Means and Activities of orientalists.
8. The impact of orientation in Islamic nation.
9. Orientation and Islamic dogma.
10. Suspicions of orientalists about Islamic dogma.
11. Orientalist's reading of Quran and the suspicions raised about Quran and refutes.
12. Orientalist's reading of prophet biography and their suspicions about it and refutes.
13. Orientalist's reading of prophet's biography and Islamic history.
14. Orientalists suspicions about prophet biography and Islamic history and refuts.
15. Orientation states: orientation in England.
16. Orientation in France.
17. Orientation in Italy.
18. Orientation in Russia.
19. Orientation in America.
20. Orientation in Holland.
21. Orientation in occupied territory.
22. Evangelism, its aim and
23. Methods of Evangelism.
24. The astonishment , its aims and its trueness.
25. Types of orientation
26. Exercises of refuting the suspicions of orientalists
27. Muslims scholars who refute orientalists suspicions
28. Rules of dealing with orientalists
29. Types of Relegation
30. Contemporary relegation