

Course Name: Modern Speech Science

Stage: Fourth Hours: 2 Number of Units: 4 System: Yearly

Definition of modern speech science

Prospects for innovation in theology

The emergence and development of modern speech science

Topics of modern speech science

Research Methodology in Contemporary Speech Science

Functions of modern speech science

Read the old verbal experience

Definition of Religion (Contemporary Reading)

The vision of material philosophers in the formation of religion

The vision of modern religious philosophers in the formation of religion

The dimensions of religion and its mission in the contemporary world

The relationship of science to religion (understanding, conflict)

Religious domain and religious language

Religiousism and Religious Experience

The relationship of the mind to the religion, substance and presentation in religion

Religious knowledge and curricula

Religious pluralism and religious role

Stability and religious transformation

Religion and ethics

Religion and myth religion and ideology

Religion and Modernity

Analysis of the eight proofs in proving God's existence and criticizing the suspicions raised in this regard - the existential proof

Proof of duty and abstinence

Proof of mastery - proof of perfection

Proof of accidents and special experiments - Ethical proofs - proof of instinct

Probability of probability calculation

A contemporary vision of good and mental ugliness

A contemporary vision of prophecy (its potential - necessity) and Prophet (personality, role and attributes)

Contemporary vision in the Imamate

Contemporary vision of the antiquity