

Course Name: Methodology

Vocabulary

Definition of the curriculum language and terminology
Search definition - search steps
Types of curriculum / experimental - analytical - scientific - critical
Search terms
Conditions to be provided by the researcher
Choose Topic (Selection Terms)
the plan
How resources work and use
The drafts - bleached
Positive and negative research criticism - and explanatory cash
Foundations of the curriculum
The relationship between logic and research methodology
Practical examples of the methodology of some books
The definition of the manuscript and the document and the difference between them
Historical development of writing
The movement of authorship and translation in Islam (genetics and paperwork)
Arabic writing materials and writing tools
Physical features of the manuscript
Arabic calligraphy and its types
Discharge and Definition
Recombinant and different
Increase and deletion
Steps to achieve manuscript
Word processing
Ratio of the manuscript to the author
Review the sources of information for the document
Copy the manuscript and its mattresses
Investigation Methodology
Recent additions / presentation of text and description of manuscript - Care of print output
- Making modern catalogs - understanding and appendix