

8- Sensory Devices and Imagery:

Victorian poetry uses sensory devices in depicting the abstract scenes.

Question: How does Browning in his "Dover Beach" vitalize human sense in depicting the images?

9-Sentimentality:

Because of depicting artistic creation, Victorian poetry indulges in imagination.

Question: Do you think sentimentality and objectivity contrastive as features in Victorian poetry?

10- Telling Story(Narrative Poem):

Victorian poets find new ways to tell stories in verse.

11-Dramatic Monologue:

It is a type of poetry which has theatrical quality when the poem is planned to be read to the audience. And it is a monologue since it is said without dialogue or interruption from others.

Question: What is the new addition of Victorian poets to the monologue, if there is any, select "My Last Duchess" to be the arena of searching?

12-Pictorial Poetry:

It uses detail to make visual images that represent the emotion or situation the poem concerns.

Question: What is the connection between realism and pictorial feature?