

المحاضرة الثانية

Act 1 sce.2

This scene starts with the appearance of the main character Viola. She is on the shore with the captain of the ship and some sailors. She asks what country they are in , the captain answers her it is Illyria. She starts expressing her griever about the separation from her brother Sebastian who must be in 'Elysium'. She fears that he is drowned but there is a hope by speech of the captain who maintains he saw Sebastian strap himself to a mast.in gratitude for his comforting words she rewards him with gold.

The captain gives her more information about the Duke Orsino who is noble in nature and name. she said that her father had mentioned him at the past. She decides to become as one of his servants but in a shape of a young man, she will disguise. She asks the captain to keep her secret and he agrees.