Unit 1

Haven't we met before?

- Situational Dialogue 1

GIVE IT A TRY

Tag questions:

Positive sentence ===== negative tag

Kate will be here soon, won't she?

It's a nice day, isn't it?

negative sentence ===== positive tag

Kate won't be late, will she?

They don't like us, do they?

Very Important

- If the sentence does not contain an auxiliary, borrow from DO, (tense and subject)

This film looks very interesting, doesn't it?

Unit 1

Haven't we met before?

- After Let's The question tag is shall we?

Let's go for a walk, shall we?

- After Don't, the question tag is will you?

Don't be late, will you?

- After I'm the negative question tag is aren't I?

I'm right, aren't I? Yes, you are.

Unit 1

Haven't we met before?

- Conversational Openings
- Practice 1
- Practice 2

Unit 1

Haven't we met before?

Extending the conversation:

- The difference between 'have been to' and 'have gone to';
- I have been to this film festival before (meaning, I went there, saw the film festival, but I am here now)
- Ali has gone to London (meaning, he is either on his way to London or has arrived there, but sure he is not here now)
- Practice

Unit 1

Haven't we met before?

- This is the first time I have been to this film festival (we normally use 'the' before expressions like 'this is the first time', etc, BUT not 'a' or 'an')
- I have been to this film festival before (meaning, I went there, saw the film festival, but I am here now)
- Ali has gone to London (meaning, he is either on his way to London or has arrived there, but sure he is not here now)
