

(3)

When are you flying

The following expressions and topics will be explained with examples and exercises:

1-Asking polite questions: expressions used are:

Would it be possible to fly three days later?

Is it possible to go in the morning?

Can I fly three days later?

Could I go in the morning?

2-Giving reasons: “So” and “because”

I’ve hurt my leg so I can’t do the cycling trip

I can’t do the cycling trip because I’ve hurt my leg.

3-“So” is used to explain different situations:

A-to avoid repeating language

B-To introduce a new topic

C-As an adverb to make the meaning of an adjective stronger

The important sentences/expressions in this unit are:

Would it be possible to fly three days later?

Could I go in the morning?

I'm really tired so I don't want to do more exercise.

I don't want to do the cycling trip because I am really tired.

Let me just check the availability.

Can you give me the booking number?

If you cancel now, you will lose that deposit.

A trip that lots of people do is.....

B:p.43 asking polite questions:

Would it be possible to.....

Is it possible to.....

Can i

Could i

-After these four expressions, we use base.

-Do exercise 1

D: P.44 Giving reasons:

We use "so" and "because" to give a reason.

-look at the two examples, the order of the two sentences is different in so and because. they are opposite

-Do exercise 3 for giving reasons.

-P: 45 focus on:

We have how we use "so".

In sentence number 1, so is an adverb, it comes before adjective happy.

In number 2, so is used in order not to repeat the same words in our answer.

And in 3, so is used in conversation when we want to begin a new topic.

-At page 94, there are two conversations: 62 and 64

-62: we will find the polite questions we referred to above.

-64: we will find how "so" used in different way as we explained above.

-at page 80, there is useful language. You find unit 9 with the important sentences in the unit. read them